EXHIBITS

Archives: "LGBTQ Legacies: Art, Archives, Analysis"

May 10 - Aug 28

Opening Reception, May 10, 6:00-8:00pm

For his Archive series, Gabriel Martinez re-photographed 1970s and 80s-era images of LGBTQ+ life in Philadelphia by Harry R. Eberlin within the context of the John J. Wilcox, Jr. Archives. Eberlin was the first staff photographer for the Philadelphia Gay News and documented queer communities in Philly and surrounding areas. In this exhibit, Martinez's mixed-media prints are reunited with the source images to trouble diversity and critically examine representation in queer archives. This project, which is organized in collaboration with Martinez, Michael Carroll and John Anderies, Director of the Wilcox Archives, seeks to shed light on robust yet problematic aspects of depictions of our regional histories.

Art: "Tonight is Forever"

May 10 - June 28

Opening Reception, May 10, 6:00-8:00pm

"Tonight is Forever" investigates, celebrates and honors the ongoing global, national and regional struggles for LGBTQ+ liberation. This immersive multimedia project by Gabriel Martinez is being presented in relationship to the 50th anniversary of the Stonewall Uprising.

PROGRAMS AND EVENTS (by date)

Coffee Talk

Jun 5 & 19 (1st & 3rd Wednesdays) 7:00pm

Coffee Talk is a social gathering for people who identify as Trans, Genderqueer or Non-Binary, & their Allies. This is a safe space for all to discuss daily life, adventures, daydreams, &/or realities. Coffee Talk is an all-inclusive, non-threatening environment for everyone to engage in casual conversation.

Bring Your Own: Stories from the LGBTQ Community Digitizing Days

Jun 5 7:00pm

In 2018 the Archives sponsored two LGBTQ Community Digitizing Days at which community members could bring in their cherished personal archival material for scanning or photographing. We heard many stories behind the materials that were digitized—stories of struggle, celebration, remembrance, belonging, loss, identity, and love. This program welcomes back selected Digitizing Day participants to share their stories with a broader audience. Refreshments will be served.

Philadelphia Asian & Queer (PAQ)

Jun 16 (3rd Sundays) 3:00pm - 4:30pm

Please join our monthly support group at the William Way Center! In an effort to create a safe space for our community, this group is only open to API/AAP (Asian and Pacific Islanders/Asian American) individuals who are LGBTQ-identified or LGBTQ-friendly.

Rainbow Reading Book Club: "Paul Takes the Form of a Mortal Girl", Andrea Lawlor

Jun 19 (3d Wednesdays) 6:00pm

Andrea's debut novel offers a speculative history of early '90s identity politics in the heyday of ACT UP and Queer Nation. The novel is a riotous, razor-sharp bildungsroman whose hero/ine wends his/her way through a world gutted by loss, pulsing with music, and opening into an array of intimacy and connections—a journey through the deep queer archives of struggle and pleasure.

Join our book club for commitment-phobes. Each month there's a new genre with many titles, available for free. Come every time or drop in when a selection intrigues you. All are LGBTQ-related & readers will be invited to discuss them in person & online beforehand. 10% off Club titles when purchased through Phila AIDS Thrift @Giovanni's Room.

Queer Writers Collective
